Many clients and investors were closed out. For the benefit of those who were unfortunate by not participating on the first allotment, we have taken an option on another block of stock and are still filling orders at ten cents per share while they last.

We can not state definitely how long we can be able to do this, but should your order arrive too late to secure shares under the ten cent price your money will be returned by mail to you. We urge you to act at once.

Remember we have 600 acres in the world's greatest oil fields of Mexico. Our geologists and field manager are in Mexico now arranging drilling operations for Well No. 1. One 10,000 barrel-well will make Capital Petroleum worth $10.00 per share.
